

Saeen Ghulam Murtaza Syed
(17th January 1904 – 25th April 1995)
A Leader and Visionary
of Modern Sindhi Nation

106th Birthday of Saeen G M Syed

16th January, Saturday 2010

168 Romford Road, Stratford, E7 9HY, London

(Near Stratford Station of Jubilee and Central Line)

12.00 – 15.00 PM

World Sindhi Congress is hosting a gathering in London to commemorate the 106th birthday of Saeen.G. M. Syed, a leader who waged a nonviolent struggle against Islamic fundamentalism and strove towards the emancipation of Sindh, a Sufi country that is now a province in Pakistan. It is our pleasure to invite you to this event. Your participation would let Sindhis know that people around the world support their struggle for human rights, democracy and secularism.

Programme

- Welcome
- Speeches and Discussion
- Cake Ceremony
- Concluding Remarks

For further information, please contact:

Dr Hidayat Bhutto on 07796672096 or (h_bhutto@yahoo.co.uk)

Visit www.worldsindhicongress.org and <http://www.gmsyed.org>.