SINDHI GET-TOGETHER IN HOUSTON

WSC TO CELEBRATE 106th BIRTH ANNIVERSARY OF SAEEN G. M. SYED

Houston, TX, October 22, 2009, G. M Syed Memorial Committee and World Sindhi Congress have jointly arranged a get-together in Houston on Saturday January 16th, 2010 to commemorate the 106th birth anniversary of Saen G. M. Syed, a reverent Sindhi leader who pioneered the Sindhi freedom movement. Over three decades, Mr. Syed was repeatedly detained in various Pakistani prisons without trial until his death in 1995. The Amnesty International adopted him as a Prisoner of Conscience. Mr. Syed extensively wrote on Sindhi identity, Sindhi religious thoughts, and political situations in Sindh.

Every year GM Syed Committee and WSC organize this event in accordance to its continuing effort to reach out Sindhi community at large and to create awareness among the participants about the plights of Sindh and Sindhis around the world. This event also provides a forum for inter-community dialogue on social and cultural aspects of Sindhi identity. Several prominent community members are invited to attend this event in Houston. Speeches, a cake cutting ceremony and dinner are part of the program.
